Mr. Paul Shaw

Paul Shaw is a Professional Dom based in LA. Raised in the South (USA) and the Middle East: two worlds where guilt, shame, repression were standard when it comes to human sexuality. Especially around women's pleasure. These experiences inform his work creating experiences for women to explore their edges in ways that are exhilarating, healing, therapeutic, all while being restorative, and in a shame-free environment. He believes in having radical acceptance and that human beings deserve amazing experiences.

Paul will help you:

- Loosen up the blockages
- Live a life without guilt and shame around sexuality.
- Feel empowered and confident
- Learn to surrender and let go
- Foster and encourage inner self-healing
